

GG50060 Temporary and Contracted Workers Preferred Supplier Panel

Contingent Worker Consent Form

Recitals

- A. The Contingent Worker (the Worker) is engaged by an entity (the Supplier) which provides temporary and contracted workers under the GG50060 Temporary and Contracted Workers Preferred Supplier Panel (the PSP) with the State of Queensland (the Principal) to Eligible Customers as defined under that PSP (Customers¹).
- B. The Worker wishes the Supplier to put forward the Worker for temporary roles with Customers, from time to time.
- C. In assessing whether to engage the Worker for temporary roles, Customers may require criminal history checks to be conducted on the Worker, because:
 - a. the Customer has determined that this is necessary due to the nature of the duties to be undertaken by the Worker; or
 - b. such checks are required or authorised by law.
- D. During any engagement of the Worker in a temporary role with a Customer, the Customer will want to share information related to the performance of the Worker with the Supplier, the Principal, other Customers and relevant service providers to the PSP, including the vendor management system supplier and the managed service provider which manages the system.
- E. To be considered for engagements for temporary roles with Customers, the Worker is required to provide the consents set out below.

Contingent Worker Consent

I hereby,

- consent to Customers undertaking criminal history checks in relation to roles for which I wish to be put forward for consideration;
- consent to providing the Customer with the results of a criminal history check that I have undertaken;
- consent to the Supplier providing the results of a criminal history check to the Customer, for the purpose of assessing my suitability for the role, and where the results of the criminal history check are required by law;
- consent to information related to my performance in a temporary role with a Customer, should I be engaged in that temporary role via the Resource Manager Service ², being accessible by the Supplier, the Principal, current and future Customers and relevant service providers to the PSP, including the vendor management system supplier and the managed service provider which manages the system, for the purposes of:
 - a) managing the procurement of services;
 - b) reviewing my performance under the engagement; and
 - c) assessing my suitability to perform services under any future contracts with Customers.
